BRILLIANT BEAUX-ARTS BALL INSPIRED BY UNQUENCHABLE SPIRIT OF FRANCE

Two Thousand Persons in Costume at Historical Pageant and Dance.

A rare and radiant company peopled the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor last night., Raymond of Toulouse, returned from the crusades, was enthroned in the Court of Love with the Queen of Beauty by his side. For her troubadours sang and magicians and astrologers performed their wondrous rites. Catherine de Medici bade the Duc de Guise and the Frince de Conde sheathe their quarrelling swords, and they obeyed. The centuries marched along and with them appeared and disappeared innumerable great figures of monarchical France, full blown with the breath of life. Among Jester. At length, when the revels this was the end of happiness. Beauty and Romance drew back a curtain and there was the Spirit of French Gayety trumphant over Time.
